6. HIGHWAYS

a. Community Speed Watch

The clerk informed that after speaking with the relevant officer the following information was relayed:

- Need to have a team of designated volunteers in place
- Next will be a Power Point presentation in two parts given
 - i. Theory
 - ii. Sign identity forms
- Then there will practical training

However, before anything can proceed the Parish Council would need to have designated sites where the speed watch will be taking place. It is suggested that five are allocated for submission then someone from the team will come and assess their suitability.

Designated sites suggested were outside the Chairman's property, outside Linkage, outside All Saints Church and opposite Chapel Lane. A proposal was made to ask for volunteers at the next coffee morning.
