5. TO RECEIVE ANY REPORTS FROM ANY OUTSIDE BODIES

Newly elected ELDC Councillor Taylor sent his apologies as he is currently away.

LCC Cllr Bowkett reported the following:

- Despite an increase in Government funding the Council have had to revise the budget proposal for 2022/23 as they still face a £22m shortfall over the next three financial years. They understand that this is going to be a difficult time for families but need to maintain the frontline services which residents rely on. They estimate that adult care will increase by around £13.5m during 2022/23 therefore are proposing an increase of 3%. It is believed that the Government are not going to reverse their decision to cut last year's funding to Highways therefore leaving a £12m shortfall, therefore are proposing a further 2% increase.
- LCC have been chosen for a Government pilot project aimed at ensuring school meals meet National Guidance supporting pupils healthy and well-being. This pilot will work with our local Food Authority Food Safety Inspectors to check schools are meeting the standards required. The Government also plan to launch a curriculum and training to ensure all children leave school with practical ability to cook six basic meals.

- A new collection “Space to Earth” is coming to Lincoln’s Collection Museum from Saturday 5th March 2022.
- The rural bus service on Wednesday to Boston is stopping, though Call Connect will be advertising that a service will be available. Eastville are proposing at hiring a minibus and are looking at contributions to the scheme.
